

Change your home from “Cold to Cosy” with a FREE service for Cumbrian households

Who is eligible? Open to anyone in Cumbria who qualifies as ‘vulnerable’ due to their health, financial or social situation.

What’s on offer? Clear advice and practical help that could save you money and energy, including: • Advice phone call • Home visit by a qualified adviser • Draughtproofing & energy-saving kit • LED bulbs • Advice on energy tariffs • Referrals for other improvements (fixing boilers, new insulation, smart thermostats & more)

How do I apply? You can apply direct at: www.cosyhomes.org.uk Or call Cumbria Action for Sustainability (CAFS) on 01768 216500

The Staveley Women’s Institute and SENS are working together to provide local households with further information for those who may be eligible, and to offer to support householders who decide to apply.

What happens next? You will receive a free advice call by a qualified energy advisor. They will discuss with you how you might make make your home warmer, and agree the next steps.
